MUST KNOW KING ALEXANDER STORY-

Background - OUR ROYAL CONNECTIONS

In 1263 the ancestor of Clan Mackenzie saved King Alexander III from being gored by a stag with a single arrow. The grateful King granted him the right to bear a stag's head in his coat of arms, with the motto 'Help the King' (Cuidich ' N Righ, in the Gaelic language). The Dalmore Distillery was long owned by the Mackenzie family, and every bottle of The Dalmore is adorned with this noble emblem: a stag's head, with twelve points to its antlers, signifying a 'royal'. A reminder of our heroic past and an inspiration for all who taste our Single Highland Malt.
